Merz.—An effort is being made to collect funds for a monument to the late Karl Merz.

Von Bulow.—Von Bulow's last recital in New York did not have a Beethoven number on it.

Are you nervous and irritable? A glass of Cook's Imperial Wine banishes that feeling. It's the pure grape juice naturally fermented.

Dr. Richter signed a ten years' renewal of his engagement as conductor at the Vienna Opera House, and thereby put a stop to any idea that he would soon visit the United States. Richter is greatly attached to Vienna, where he has a large number of friends and where also he is extremely popular.

Moreover, by the extension of the term of his engagement he increases the pension to which he will be entitled from the Austrian Government at the end of so long a period of service.

Miss L. A. Priest, pianist, of 14 East Fifty-third street, formerly vocalist at Trinity and Holy Communion churches of St. Louis, and member of Grace church choir of New York, gave the last of three piano and song recitals on Wednesday evening, April 30, at the residence of Mrs. Alexander McKinstry, 150 West Forty-eighth street, at which she gave five vocal and seven instrumental numbers to a large, refined and delighted audience.

Genelli, of 923 Olive Street, makes 100 Stamp Photos, from cabinet size, for $1. Cabinet will be returned by mail, unsoiled with stamps, on short notice. Mail Cabinet with $1.

Tschaikowsky.—The new opera by Tschaikowsky, entitled "The Captain's Daughter," is to be brought out soon in St. Petersburg. This is the composer's eighth opera, none of them specially successful.

Madame Louise Natali, who has lately returned from Paris, where she has been studying with Marchesi, has been engaged by Gustave Hinrichs as prima donna of the American Opera Company, and will appear during the summer in "Lucia," "Il Trovatore," "Faust," "La Traviata," "Oberon," "Lucretia Borgia," "Der Freischütz," "Ermani," and other standard operas. Mme. Natali has since her return been singing with the Theodore Thomas and Damrosch Metropolitan Opera House orchestras with great success.

We have the pleasure of answering the many inquiries we have received in regard to the style, etc., of the staircase in the new residence of Mr. Charles Kunkel by referring them to the above cuts. The tablets, bearing the monogram of the donor on one side and some musical scenes on the other, appear in the center of the balustrade work. The wainscotting on each side of the grand hall running from the door to the staircase is also lined with tablets for which room could not be made in the balustrade. They were split into halves, monogram and subject appearing side by side. In the wainscotting under the staircase porch are inserted the large panels, magnificent pieces of art work. The whole is lit up with a beautiful stained glass window, which appears at the head of the first flight of stairs. See elevation showing staircase.

CITY NOTES.

Wm. M. Jenkins is taking his summer vacation.

H. H. Darby displayed a new organ at Burlington, Ia.

Wm. Rowley, has been engaged as basso of the Third Congregational Church.

George Jarvis, organist, presented the cantate, "God is Love" very successfully at St. Peters church.

Edward Neltzert, basso of the Third Congregational Church was killed by the cable cars near Lafayette Park.

Miss Nellie Strong has left for Europe, visiting Germany, Scotland, Switzerland and Italy. She will return in October.

Louis Courath has been engaged by the Beethoven Conservatory. Mr. Courath is a graduate of Liepsig Conservatory and a very efficient and talented teacher.

Wynne—There is a new soprano in town. C. I. Wynne, the popular Olive street music dealer is the happy (not frantic) father of a bouncing baby girl.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Humphrey gave a musicale in compliment to the well-known tenor, Fred Specht of New York. Mrs. Cunningham, Messrs. Epstein and Mrs. Sheppard contributed numbers.

Miss Strong's pupils gave a Mendelssohn concert at Memorial Hall on the 18th ult. A very attentive audience listened to numbers which were rendered exceedingly well. Miss Strong is well known as one of our foremost teachers.

August Wm. Hoffman, of the Beethoven Conservatory, was selected by the Harden University, of Mexico, Mo., to act as judge in the contest for a grand piano, which was awarded to the most competent pupil in the music department there.

The T. Bahnsen piano, was the admired of all at the White Hall concert, where it was played upon by Mr. Kroeger. The Bahnsen piano is a beauty in tone—full and rich and is one of the most durable pianos made. It deserves in every way the recognition it has won.

The Beethoven Association gave a grand concert in Exposition Music Hall on the 29th ult., in conjunction with the Orpheus Saenger Bund, the St. Louis Musik Verein and the St. Louis Damen chor. This is the first time that the Reed orchestra appeared in public.

The Olympia Quartette composed of Messrs. C. A. Metcalf, 1st tenor, G. H. Bahrenburg, 2nd tenor, G. A. Klessell, 1st bass, H. F. Niedringhaus, 2nd bass, goes to Milwaukee under special engagement to sing at the concert given by the Royal Arcanum National Convention. The world renowned Imperial quartette of Chicago also participates.

Nikisch, the conductor, and Victor Ehling, are old chums. They were in the same class at the Vienna Conservatory, together with Mottile and Faur, all of whom have gained prominence in the musical world. When Nikisch met Ehling in the Southern Hotel rotunda, he threw his arms around him with gladness at sight of his old school friend.

A. G. Halter opened the new organ in St. Joseph's Church, Sunday, the 18th ult. He played: Hallelujah (Messias) Handel; Communion, Batiste; Invocation, Guilmant; Gebet, Wagner; Pilgrim Chorus, Wagner; Organ Finale: Toccata and Fuge, Bach. Many visitors came specially to hear Mr. Halter and were highly impressed with his playing.

Charles C. Bertholdt, teacher of the banjo and mandolin at 2738 Washington Ave., has published some excellent pieces for the banjo. Among them are "Bons-Bons" (a yorke), "Mistletoe Shottische," "Vivid Polka," "Answer Schottische," "Flyaway Reel," etc., all late successes. Guitar and Mandolin players will do well to send for his descriptive catalogue.

The Legion of Honor gave its members and friends an exceptionally fine programme for its annual concert at the Exposition Hall. Among the numbers were:

Duo for two pianos, Midsummer Night's Dream Music, Mendelssohn. Grand Fantasia, introducing Nocturne, Overture, Fairy Music, Wedding March, Charles Kunkel and Ernest R. Kroeger. MAJOR AND MINOR.

Miss Neally Stevens, a Chicago girl, and one of the most brilliant performers on the piano in the Prairie State, works ten hours a day at her practice when not travelling. She has engagements all over the Northwest, and an income from her music of $1,000 a month. Miss Stevens is a pretty blonde: young, plump, enthusiastic and captivating. She has big dimples in her elbows and little ones at her wrist and knuckles, and at the piano wears soft, white crepe gowns made baby fashion with shoulder sleeves.

Wm. Huber, Jr., Organist, with the assistance of Miss Susie K. Rike, contralto, gave an organ recital at the M. E. church, Hamilton, Ohio.

Mrs. Jeannette M. Thurber, president of the National Conservatory of Music, is in matters of dress as original as Annie Jenness Miller. Her business suit is made of English twill. The skirt is kilted and buttoned round a linen shirt made exactly like a gentleman's. Over this is worn a vest cut high in the neck, with a satin back and breast pockets, and a short two-button cut-away coat completes the smart little outfit. On any other woman this would be mannish, but Mrs. Thurber is one of those strong, earnest, forceful beings, who rises superior to her raiments and surroundings. Like the old masters, she is music mad, and talks and thinks and dreams of nothing else.

It is a matter of wisdom to see Genell's $1 50 Cabinet Photos, before wasting your money at cheap galleries. It will pay also to inspect all of the higher grades, ranging up to $7.

As a Hair Dressing,

The first place has long been conceded to Ayer's Hair Vigor. Ladies find that this preparation imparts to the hair a beautiful gloss and a delicate and lasting fragrance. Gentlemen use it to prevent baldness, to restore faded and gray hair to its former color, and to cure troublesome humors in the scalp.

"I strongly recommend Ayer's Hair Vigor, having seen tests which have convinced me of its worth. My wife was growing gray and losing her hair rapidly, but by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor checked the hair from falling, started a new growth, and restored her hair to its original color. The Vigor excels all other hair preparations."—J. J. Perry, Spottsylvania C. H., Va.

"Ayer's Hair Vigor is more popular among my customers than any other preparation. It is safe to say that I sell ten bottles of this to one of any other."—C. Tenzler, Weimar, Texas.

"Some time ago my wife's hair began to come out quite freely. Ayer's Hair Vigor not only prevented further loss of hair, but also stimulated an entire new growth. I am ready to certify to this statement before a justice of the peace."—H. Hulsebus, Lewisburgh, Ia.

"Some time ago my hair began to fade and to fall out so badly that I thought I should be bald; but the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor has restored the original color and made my hair strong, abundant, and healthy. It does not fall out any more."—Addie Shaffer, 540 Race st., Cincinnati, Ohio.

BOSTON SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA.

The Boston Symphony Orchestra, Arthur Nikisch, Conductor, assisted by Mme. Steinbach-Jahns, Dramatic Soprano, late of the Leipzig Stadt Theatre, Mme. Fanny Bloomfield-Zeissler, Pianiste, Mr. Franz Kneisel, Violin, and Mr. Leo Schulz, Violoncello, gave two concerts at Grand Music Hall, on the 9th and 10th ultimo. Programmes follow:

FIRST CONCERT.—Vorspiel, "Die Meistersinger," Wagner. Aria from Tannhäuser, Wagner, Mme. Steinbach-Jahns. Concerto for Piano and Orchestra, Liszt, Mme. Bloomfield-Zeissler. Italian Symphony, Mendelssohn. Songs, with Piano: (a) "O Lieb," Liszt; (b) Lullaby, Brahms; (c) "Die Quelle," Goldmark; Mme. Steinbach-Jahns. Symphonic Poem, "Les Préludes," Liszt.

SECOND CONCERT.—Overture, "Sakuntala," Goldmark. First Movement from Concerto for Violin, Brahms, Mr. Kneisel. Suite, "Peer Gynt," Grieg. Concerto for Violoncello, Eckert, Mr. Schulz. Symphony in C minor, No. 5, Beethoven.

Arthur Nikisch was the centre to which all eyes were directed, and the ordeal was well stood. The work of the orchestra was perfect. Every detail was worked up, and the result was the height of artistic finish. The soloists were very warmly received. Mme. Fanny Bloomfield-Zeissler renewed her past triumphs here. Her playing was faultless and the audience received her with a warmth of appreciation that is accorded few artists. Altogether, we have had few concerts during the season that afforded greater pleasure to an audience.

SARASATE-D'ALBERT CONCERT.

Pablo de Sarasate, Violinist, and Eugen D'Albert, Pianist assisted by Mme. Bertha Marx. Accompanist, gave a matinee and evening concert at Grand Music Hall, rendering the following programme:

Sonata, op. 53 in C, L. van Beethoven, Allegro con brio—Introduzione e Rondo, Herr Eugen D'Albert. Andante and Variations, from Sonata dedicated to Kreutzer, L. van Beethoven, Mme. Bertha Marx and Señor Pablo de Sarasate. Solos, (a) Berceuse, op. 57, Fr. Chopin; (b) Barcarolle, A minor, A. Rubinstein; (c) Valse, "Man lebt nur einmal," Strauss-Tausig, Herr Eugen D'Albert. Liebesfee (La Fée d'Amour, Morceau caractéristique, for Violin and Piano), J. Raff, Señor Pablo de Sarasate and Mme. Bertha Marx. Solos, (a) Norwegian Bridal Procession, op. 19, No. 2, Ed. Grieg; (b) Tarantella, "Venezia e Napoli," Liszt; Herr Eugen D'Albert. Faust Fantasie, Sarasate, Señor Pablo de Sarasate.

MATINEE PROGRAMME.—Passacaglia for Organ, C Minor Arranged by Eugen D'Albert, J. S. Bach, Herr Eugen D'Albert. Rondeau Brilliant, F. Schubert, B minor, for Piano and Violin, Mme. Bertha Marx and Señor Pablo de Sarasate. Solos, (a) Nocturne, op. 27, No. 2, (b) Valse, op. 48, (c) Polonaise, op. 53, Fr. Chopin, Herr Eugen D'Albert. Concerto for Violin, Mendelssohn, Allegro—Andante—Finale, Allegro Molto, Señor Pablo de Sarasate. Solos, (a) Humoreske, op. 6, No. 3, E. Grieg; (b) Polonaise, No. 2, (c) Valse Impromptu, (d) Rhapsodie Hongroise, XII, Fr. Liszt, Herr Eugen D'Albert. Solos, (a) Nocturne (Chopin), (b) Habanera, Sarasate, (c) Valse Vienne, Liszt-Schubert, Señor Pablo de Sarasate.

Those fortunate enough to be present can say they never received a more artistic treat in St. Louis than that afforded them by these two incomparable artists. Sarasate's tone was pure and beautiful—his work a revelation of artistic violin playing. D'Albert is a consummate artist—with scarcely a peer in the world. He played without a flaw. The enraptured audience followed him through every passage—stirred with varying emotions awakened by the young and soulful artist. The power to which he arose on occasions was tremendous and aroused the highest enthusiasm in the audience. Mme. Bertha Marx received high praise for her excellent work. The Steinway piano was used.

VON BULOW RECITAL.

Dr. Hans Von Bulow gave his piano recital at Entertainment Hall to an audience that crowded every available space. The stage, the stage balcony, the aisles back to the entrance were packed with an enthusiastic throng. The little doctor proved his judgment still sound when he refused point blank to play in the main hall of the Exposition building. As it was, not a note of the magnificent programme was lost to the thirsty audience. The programme, judiciously selected, was as follows:

Programme.—1. W. A. Mozart, Fantasie and Fugue, C major, (1782). 2. Beethoven, Sonata quasi Fantasia (Moonlight), C sharp minor Op. 27, No. 2, (1801.) Adagio sostenuto—Allegretto—Presto agitato. 3. Joachim Raff, Third Suite, E minor, Op. 72, (1853.) Præludium—Menuett—Toccata—Romanze—Fugue. 4. Beethoven, Sonata appassionata, Op. 57, (1804.) Allegro—Andante con moto—Finale. 5. Fr. Chopin, a. Nocturno, Op. 9, No. 3. b. Impromptu, Op. 36. c. Scherzo, Op. 39. d. Berceuse, Op. 57. 6. F. Liszt, a. Two Concert Studies, "In the Forest" and "Dance of Hobgoblins." b. Hungarian Rhapsody, No. 8.

The doctor was received with enthusiasm. Throughout the programme, his part of interpreter, pure and simple, was sustained. Such precision, such adherence to truth and artistic interpretation were scarcely conceivable. Bulow's intentions are obvious from the start; no straining after effects, no mannerism—but a dispassionate mind accompanies him through all. Not a note however trivial but was given its proper weight while the subtle beauty was brought to light. The saying that Bulow conducts while at the piano strikes the key note of his work.

In the familiar Moonlight Sonata, the audience followed him with the keenest interest; his playing here was well defined and the contrasts brought out in a true, artistic manner. His treatment of all the numbers brought out in turn, an unsurpassable delicacy of touch and masterly treatment in light and shade. The Knabe piano was used in this concert and did not a little to second the artist.

BEETHOVEN CONSERVATORY.

The annual commencement exercises of the Beethoven Conservatory of Music were held at Memorial Hall, Nineteenth and Lucas place, and were attended by a very large and interested audience. The exercises were opened by Misses Emma Lynds, Anna Whitemann, Carrie Drach and Edna Owen who rendered a quartet for two pianos, a military march from Schubert and ballet music arranged by Gluck, in a most creditable manner. Mrs. Florence Perry Hirsch sang a pretty soprano solo. Miss Mary Augell, only ten years of age, played a piano solo, with second piano and quintet accompaniment. Miss Mamie Sussenthaber's violin solo won her deserved applause. The Misses Mamie Breckenridge, Clyde Rhodes, Mamie Charles, Urilla McDearmon, Bertha Sechler, Masters Carl Toll, Bertram Maginn, Mr. Jessie Cozzens, the well-known tenor, and Miss Bertha Brownlee were very successful in their work and received the hearty approval of the audience.

Mrs. T. H. Fish, Miss Nellie Allen, Miss Mamie A. Charles, Miss Katie E. Wright and Miss Annie Hoffmann, post-graduates, were recipients of elegant gold medals. Diplomas were given to Mr. Charles Huber, Miss Bertha Moore, Miss Clyde Rhodes, Miss Mamie Breckenridge and Miss Georgia Bouillet. The exercises closed with a dance song for vocal quartet and chorus. Misses Pearl Peck, Josie Singer, Laura Cowen and Urilla McDearmon composed the quartet, and were assisted by a chorus of sixteen voices.

Year after year the Beethoven Conservatory has proven that its reputation as one of the foremost institutions in the country is fully acquired, and this could not certainly be otherwise, with such an array of eminent teachers at its head. Applications are received from all sections and the coming season promises to be one of the most successful in the history of the Conservatory.

IMPORTANT DOCUMENTS.

An incontestable verdict from undisputed authorities. Letters from Signor Francesco Tamagno, the greatest living tenor, and Luigi Arditi, the world renowned musical conductor. (Translated from the Italian.)

Feb. 19, 1890.

Gentlemen: It affords me great pleasure to tender my sincerest appreciation for the magnificent STECK Piano you so kindly sent me, at my request, for use during my engagement in your city.

The Steck Piano surely combines all the essential qualities of a really perfect piano—immense power with exquisite sweetness.

I do not hesitate to recommend them very strongly to professional and amateur singers, for they aid the human voice to a wonderful degree.

Wishing you the success the STECK so richly deserves, I am, believe me,

Very truly yours,

FRANCESCO TAMAGNO.

Feb. 19, 1890.

Gentlemen: The beautiful STECK Upright Piano you so kindly sent me for use during my sojourn in San Francisco is, without doubt, the finest-toned piano I have ever had the pleasure of playing on, and, without fear of contradiction, the STECK RANKS HIGHER THAN ALL OTHER INSTRUMENTS NOW MANUFACTURED.

LUIGI ARDITI.

EMILE ZOCH.

Our going to press at the time of Mr. Zoch's piano recital here, prevented an extended notice of the same. Mr. Zoch has created a most favorable impression throughout the country. Everywhere he played, he received very flattering press notices, and his renditions here were of the very highest order.

The following works have been accepted by the examining committee and will be played at the next meeting of the Music Teachers' National Association, in Detroit: "Quintette in F-sharp Minor," by Ernest R. Kroeger, St. Louis, Mo.; "Symphonic Scherzo," by Johann H. Beck, Cleveland, Ohio; "Concerto for Piano and Orchestra," first movement, (composer's name not received by the secretary); "Reverie Pastorale for Flute and Piano," by Carl Busch, Kansas City, Mo.; "Serenade and Intermezzo for Orchestra," by Henry Schoenfeld, Chicago; "Suite for Strings," by Henry Schoenfeld, Chicago.

EUGEN D'ALBERT TO WILLIAM KNABE & CO.

(Translated from the German.)

During my sojourn here I had frequent opportunities to make myself acquainted with the Knabe pianos, and from fullest conviction I declare them to be the best instruments of America. Should I return here for artistic purposes—which may be the case very soon—I shall most certainly use the pianos of this celebrated make. I give this testimonial with pleasure, voluntarily, and entirely unsolicited by the house of Knabe.

An Important Decision in a Copyright Suit.

A suit in the Circuit Court of the United States for the District of Indiana was recently commenced by Oliver Ditson Company of Boston in the name of the widow and daughter of Stephen C. Foster against the Echo Music Company of Lafayette, Ind., represented by John F. Kinsey and Joseph F. Pauley, to stop the publication and sale by the Echo Music Company of a pianoforte arrangement of the melody of the popular song of "Old Folks at Home" (Suwanee River).

A permanent injunction in favor of the plaintiffs, to prevent the defendants from publishing and selling said publication has been issued.

Melodies of which the publishers hold the copyright can not be used by any one else in any shape. The case above is an example. No matter how tempting it may be to have one's own arrangement of these old time and popular melodies, they must be let severely alone—when held in copyright by the publishers—otherwise the result will be heavy damages for the publishers.

EDOUD STRAUSS.

A correspondent of the New York Herald had an interview with the famous Edouard Strauss, and the following statements were made:

"I have heard that the most graceful valseurs the world over are found in America, and I hope I will find that this is so. Speaking from my present experience, however, the only place where the valse is danced in the perfection designed by my father, the first Johann Strauss, is at the Austrian court balls. Here we have the three-quarter time—which is graceful in the extreme—traditional with dancers and with players, but which one can not describe. It must be seen. Hardly a month passes that some dance-loving diplomat does not come to me and beg that I tell him the secret of our beautiful court measure, and I tell him and time the measure as well as I can, and they go away and introduce the step in England, in France or Italy, but always without success.

"Our beautiful court valse—as pleasant to the spectator as to the performer—is the result of traditions and the sympathetic collaborations of dancer and player, and it can not be duplicated elsewhere without the very concurrence of these same circumstances.

"My programme for my journey will be varied—popular and scientific—and several little things of my own I shall produce in America for the first time. I shall not feel like a stranger in a strange land, and I shall meet many Americans whom I have known here. I remember General Sherman with particular pleasure. He was introduced to me years ago by Count Andrassy.

"Yes," replied the valse king with a laugh, as I asked him about the truth of the current rumor, "my good father intended me for the church, and after leaving the gymnasium, I was initiated into the humanities.

"Then I saw that I wouldn't make a good priest, so I entered the Oriental Academy, and was drooning over Arabic, when suddenly the thought occurred to me that if I entered the consular service, I should have to leave Vienna and rarely return. So I made up my mind, and it was expressed in this wise, 'Nein, nein, nein.' I would rather be a poor player in the Vandebona than Premier in Dahomey; and sometimes when I recall my narrow escape and remember how nearly I became Austrian Consul in Wady Halfa or Gondonoro, I feel like going down on my knees and kissing every paving stone in the Ringstrasse."

His record as composer and conductor stands full as high as that of his father and brothers, and the orchestra under his care has grown to be without a rival in the world for the interpretation of the lighter class of music. That the Strauss music is something more than good dance music has been acknowledged by the greatest musicians of modern times, such as Wagner and Brahms, who frequently expressed great admiration for these melodious and captivating compositions.

Genelli keeps the finest artists in free-hand pastel and oil work in the city, and makes life-size portraits for prices ranging from $5 to $100.

Mme. Nordica has a beautiful home just out of London, surrounded by a large garden. When she is in it she keeps house, weeds and trims her flower beds, entertains company, hunts, rides, sails and plays tennis. She has trophies from every city she has ever sung in, and the fittings of her house are filled with bric-a-brac and ornaments, the gifts of admirers and friends. She has three pianos in her house, each of which she uses every day.

THOUGHT VERSUS EMOTION.

The concentration and arranging power of thought acts on the emotion as filtration acts on turbid liquids, clarifying and purifying them. And what the emotions lose in intensity by this process, they gain in clearness and homogeneity; whereas, without the association of thought, emotions would either pass away unexpressed, or remain vague and complex unable to find expression. "The human mind cannot with impunity surrender itself to the constant domination of any class of emotions, even of the calmest and purest kind. The perpetuity of a single emotion is insanity." If this assertion of Taylor is correct, purely emotional music, if such were possible, would then be the work of a madman, and, of course, of no value. Hence, purely emotional music is not to be thought of.

But there is such a thing as purely intellectual music; for instance, strictly constructed canons and fugues, which are essentially scientific works, void of fantasy and spontaneity, more the product of calculation than of inspiration, and frequently written with a total absence of emotion. This kind of music, though appealing to the mind only, is yet of great significance in the musical art, not merely as historical form (still accessorially employed in masses, oratorios, etc.), but as instructive form indispensable to scholarly training. It is evident that the art object in music is to appeal to the heart, as well as to the mind, to portray emotions clothed in musical thoughts, and to express musical thoughts conceived by the emotions. Therefore, in order to be a cosmopolitan language, music must express both emotion and thought. Hence, emotion and thought are intrinsically the motors of musical expression.—Christian.
